

The Daily Courant.

Friday, October 3. 1718.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Oct. 3.

Naples, September 6.

TH E Count de Thaun, after having receiv'd the Compliments of the Nobility and the Magistrates upon the Victory gain'd by the English over the Spaniards, has caused Te Deum to be Sung, wherein he ended with great Solemnity, and the Festival ended with a General Salvo of all the Artillery in the Castle. We are surpriz'd at the News come, that the English have carried to Port-Mahon the Ships they took; whereas we believ'd they would have left them here, as also the Prisoners. We know not as yet the Number of either Ships or Prisoners, the Advices we have receiv'd from Sicily differing much from one another. Two Tartanes laden with Timber and other Necessaries, are sail'd to carry it to the English Ships, whereof several were much damaged in the Fight. A Felucca of Santa Lucia, which went out to fill up some Cannon, has been taken by the Liparotes, with 18 Men that were on board it. We expect the Gallics of this Kingdom, which transported Troops to Reggio to be put into Messina; but we hear that as they pass'd by the Tower of the Faro, they receiv'd several Shots of Cannon, whereby four Officers and several Soldiers and Galley-Slaves were kill'd, besides a great Number wounded. The last News we had from Messina, is that the Citadel continues to defend it self, that the Spaniards carry on the Siege with Vigor, and that they have receiv'd a Reinforcement of 1000 Men from Syracuse. It is reported, that a Convoy of 12 Spanish Ships is arriv'd at Palermo with Troops, Provisions and Money.

Rome, Sept. 13. On the 8th Instant, there was a Chapel at the Church of our Lady del Popolo, on Occasion of the Festival of the Nativity of the Holy Virgin, and 28 Cardinals were present, but the Pope did not assist at it. Count Gallafch, the Emperour's Ambassador, went to the Church dell' Anima of the German Nation, with all his Train, and a great Retinue of Prelates and Nobility; and after the Ceremony, he treated magnificently at Dinner above fifty of those who accompanied him. On the 9th he went to Audience of the Pope, to whom he made Complaints, that he had been informed, that the Officers and Vassals of the Prince of Palestrina, protected and gave Retreat to the Company of Banditti of Scampaglia, who continued to commit great Disorders between Palestrina and Montelibretto; whereupon Orders were sent to arrest at Montelibretto, the principal Officer of the Prince of Palestrina, to whom that Fief belongs, and he has accordingly been brought hither, and put into the new Prisons. But the Prince of Palestrina has justified himself to the Pope, declaring that neither he nor his have given any Retreat or Protection to those Banditti; and Cardinal Barberini has explain'd himself upon the same Subject with the Emperour's Ambassador. On the 11th, a Felucca from Palermo arrived here, and brought to Cardinal Acquaviva Letters of the 27th of last Month; they advise, that the Spaniards had taken two Ténailles of the Citadel of Messina, and lodged themselves thereon; that the continual Fire of 60 Pieces of Cannon and 40 Mortars, had made a Breach in some places, and dismounted almost all the Artillery of the besieged; so that all things were prepar'd for giving the Assault: That on the 18th, the Spaniards made an Assault which lasted eight Hours, with great Loss on both sides, but we know not as yet the Success, except thatas we are assur'd the Besieged made themselves Masters of the Cover'd Way. The different News that is spread concerning the Affairs of that Country, and which vary according to the Inclinations of those who publish it, occasions very often Quarrels between People, especially among the Sicilian and Neapolitan Seamen, who after many Disputes, sometimes come to Blows. To prevent this, and the Consequences of it, the Corps de Guard of 60 Soldiers, who were in the Quarter of Boccalione, are remov'd to Ripa. Cardinal Acquaviva has let the Archbiishop of Palermo and some other Sicilian Prelates, (who have been exil'd on Occasion of the Interdict) know, that they might freely return to their Dioceses: But the Pope has forbid them to depart. An Armenian, who calls himself a Bishop, has given Advice, that there is a Sum of Money to the Value of 100000 Crowns, that was buried in the Time of Pope Alexander, lies in the Earth near St. Peter's Church. They have begun to dig for it, and it is order'd, that if this Treasure be found, one Third of it shall be given to the Chamber, one Third to the Chapter of St. Peter, and the other Third to the Discoverer; but Nothing has yet been found. The Procurors General of the Spanish Orders have sollicited Cardinal Acquaviva for Leave to remain here, but he has let them know, that it is not in his Power to grant it, or to interpret the Orders of the King of Spain.

Venice, Sept. 17. We learn by the Arrival of several Ships from the Levant, that the Turks have caus'd the Peace to be proclaim'd in all the Cities of the Morea, which occasion'd an extream Joy among the People, and that every where the greatest Testimonies of Joy were express'd, and the Artillery discharged. The same was done on board the Venetian Fleet, and when the News was received at Zante, the Generalissimo caused Te Deum to be sung in the Cathedral Church, and a general Salvo of all the Artillery to be made. The Turkish Commander at Modon, having been inform'd of it some Days before the Arrival of the Republick's Courier, sent one of his Officers to compliment the Venetians upon the Re-establishment of a good Understanding between the two Nations; and a Lieutenant Colonel was sent to Modon, to thank the Turkish Commander for his Civility, and to make him the like Compliment. The Ottoman Fleet was still in the Port of Modon, except the Squadrons of Barbary, which were separated to return home. The Commerce between the Inhabitants of Zante and the Turks of the Morea is begun to be restored, and the Barks go on both Sides with great Security. They are at Work in repairing the Damage which several Ships of the Fleet received in the late three Engagements, and they expected the Generalissimo at Corfu, who must now be there, seeing that an English Ship which brought this News, met him near that Island. Two Spanish Ships which were in the Port of Guin, are sail'd to Malta, to join those of their Nation, which retir'd thither after the Fight with the English.

Génoa, Sept. 20. The Masters of Barks, and Passengers, come from Naples and Calabria, report the News upon the Affairs of Sicily very different. But a Courier dispatch'd to Madrid, who pass'd by Florence the 15th, reports that the Siege of Messina continues with Vigor; that the Breach is very great, and that the Spaniards had prepar'd all things for a General Assault on the 11th of this Month. That their Batteries had had such Effect, that the Besieged fired only with eight Cannon and two Mortars, the rest of their Artillery being dismounted.
